

SocCon 2019 | 30 September – 2 October | Waipuna Hotel & Conference Centre
PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME
 (Last updated 01/08/2019)

SocCon 2019 | NEW ZEALAND SOCIAL SCIENCES CONFERENCE
 TŪRANGAWAEWAE & SENSE OF PLACE
 30 SEPT – 2 OCT 2019 | WAIPUNA HOTEL, AUCKLAND

MONDAY 30 SEPTEMBER 2019
8.00am	Registration Open
9.00am – 10.00am	Conference Opening & Mihi Whakatau
KEYNOTE SPEAKER
10.00am – 11.00am	Rebekah White
11.00am – 11.30am	Morning Tea
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS - 1 hour
Venue
11.30am – 12.30pm	Spark curiosity, build understanding: connecting ākonga with culture and heritage Sandi Faulconbridge (34)	Pūtātara – Incorporating global citizenship and sustainability into your local curriculum Christine Dew (27)	TLIF @MHJC - “Authentic connections - using mathematics and statistics in other learning areas” Kate Lambert (8)	Hands-on activities for the Economic World Mark Snoad (79)	Tūrangawaewae and its essential role in citizenship education Maria Perreau (49)
12.30pm – 1.30pm	Lunch				Exhibition Area
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 1 hour
Venue
1.30pm – 2.30pm	Putting a social inquiry for social action into practice in your classroom: climate refugee case study ASSEN (50)	Using Minecraft Education Edition to explore environmental issues. See how this free tool can engage and motivate your students. Lara Kirk (69)	NCEA Review and the Review of Achievement Standards: In practice Kate Curtis (62)	Fusion 2.0 - What have we learnt? What are we doing Different? Justin Thomson (26)	Teaching Te Tiriti - Importance and Guidance Clementine Fraser (47)
2.30pm – 2.35pm	Move to the next session

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 30 minutes
Venue
2.35pm – 3.05pm	An Introduction to GIS - Opportunities, Issues and Solutions in creating a GIS course for Year 9 and 10 Alasdair Lean (15)	Asia and Aotearoa: Where we stand in the world. Sean O'Connor (30)	Homelessness in New Zealand Holly Bodman (14)	A spotlight on Geography Case Studies Louise Richards (80)	Our House is your house! William Daveis (77)
3.05pm – 3.30pm	Afternoon Tea				Exhibition area
SUBJECT ASSOCIATION TIME
Venue
Subject Areas	Social Studies		Geography	Tourism
3.35pm-4.35pm	Aotearoa Social Studies Educators' Network (ASSEN) Q&A / AGM session (81) ASSEN		Geography and NCEA Change (52) & Rethinking Level 3 Research (53) Louise Richards	NCEA Changes - A new chance for Tourism (48) & Tourism in Schools - Opportunities for Innovators (41) Callum Green
SOCIAL FUNCTIONS
5.30pm – 7.00pm	Networking Function			Exhibition Area

TUESDAY 1 OCTOBER 2019
8.00am	Registration Open
09h00 – 09h30	Welcome & Niuean Group Cultural Performance	Venue:
KEYNOTE SPEAKER
9.30am – 10.30am	Judge Andrew Becroft	Venue:
10.30am – 11.00am	Morning Tea	Exhibition Hall

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 1 HOUR
Venue
11.00am – 12.00pm	Fostering the development of Critical Literacy through Interactive Video, using EVA. Gretchen Badenhorst (36)	Exploring my place in the world Steve Smith (32)	Introducing the Civics Education Resources Miriam Gibson (38)	Pūrākau - The Storying of Tāmaki Makaurau Lucy Tukua (82)	Addressing pressing social and environmental issues: using learning stories to notice shifts in learning Andrea Milligan (43)
12.00pm – 12.45pm	Lunch				Exhibition Hall
KEYNOTE SPEAKER
12.45pm – 1.30pm	E Wen Wong				Venue:
FIELDTRIPS AND CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
1.30pm – 5pm	All fieldtrips depart from the Conference Centre front entrance at 1.30pm		Concurrent workshops – see details below
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 1 HOUR / 30 MINS
Venue
1.30pm – 2.30pm	Changing the future: Practical tools to tackle the “action” part of social inquiry Alison Squires (57)	Making Social Sciences Work Jeffrey Mcneil (67)	Peacemakers of these Islands – from Rēkohu and Parihaka to the Nuclear Ban Treaty, Nobel Peace Prize 2017 and beyond Linda Hansen (35)	A Decolonised N.Z. Curriculum for all Educators. Tamsin Hanly (7)	Teaching and learning in place based nature Kerryn Penny (45)
				‘Coats of Arms’ the evolution of identity at Government House Heather Mills (63)	Being an Upstander: Holocaust Education in New Zealand Schools Chris Harris (25)
2.30pm – 3.00pm	Afternoon Tea				Exhibition Hall
CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS
Venue
3.00pm – 4.30pm	P-Tech in CitSci: Minecraft and LEGO as tools to foster student’s participation in learning about disaster and DRR Anthony Gampell (46)	Differentiation without segregation Tania Carver (65)	To be confirmed		To be confirmed
SOCIAL FUNCTION
6.30pm - Late	Conference Dinner onsite at the hotel Theme: Your place / Your Sense of Place – come dressed to represent your sense of place

WEDNESDAY 2 OCTOBER 2019

8.15am	Registration Opens
---------------	---------------------------

9.00am – 9.25am	Housekeeping, introduction and Korean Group Cultural Performance
------------------------	---

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

9.30am – 10.30am	Josiah Tuamalai'i	Venue
-------------------------	--------------------------	-------

10.30am – 11.00am	Morning Tea	Exhibition Hall
--------------------------	--------------------	-----------------

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 1 HOUR

Venue
11.00am – 12.00pm	Kaitiaki o Te Wao Nui Cathryn Gill (75)	Investigation measuring creativity and intelligence Rhys Jones (44)	Layers of History: Pukeahu the changing landscape Emma Jean Kelly (55)	Where in the world is your story? Claire Thurlow (6)	Contemporary Colonisation Deborah Stevens Citizenship (37)

12.00pm – 12.05pm	Move to next session
--------------------------	-----------------------------	--	--	--	--

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 30 MINUTES

Venue
12.05pm – 12.35pm	Beyond the laptop: making change in Junior Social Studies classrooms Felicity Speight (74)	The power of student blogging! Dorothy Apelu (84)	Diabetes - the impact in the Pacific Eloise Moore (86)	Empowering kiwi students to confidently navigate into their future by collaborating with schools and cultural groups in Hawai'i Nicholas Pattison (59)	Be the Change Maker: solving problems in your local community through hands-on community projects Lucy Wymer (56)

12.35pm – 1.30pm	Lunch	Exhibition Hall
-------------------------	--------------	-----------------

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 45 MINUTES

Venue
1.30pm – 2.15pm	"Civics Education: The Key to Citizenship" Nadia Schroeder (40)	Introducing Psychology into a high school setting Megan Miller (76)	Using personal projects and integration as the primary mode for learning for NCEA in Years 11 and 12. Sarah Cowie (73)	NZ-VR: Using virtual reality to teach environmental education, pollution, sustainability and human impact on the environment. Kelly Bleakley (19)	Super-diverse schools in Aotearoa New Zealand: Challenges and opportunities for social studies teachers Bronwyn Wood (78)

CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS – 45 MINUTES
Venue
2.20pm – 3.05pm	Beyond watching YouTube and making PowerPoints or Posters: Integrating Digital Technology Hangarau Matihiko into Social Sciences Monika Kern (29)	Identity and your neighborhood - understanding your world. (Inquiry based learning). Amanda Jane Kirkham (3)	Identity, power and Pacific Learners in the junior Social Studies classroom Bronwyn Houliston (51)	Making Geography Zing Jane Evans (39)	Student agency in social inquiry and social action: Have we gone too far? Bronwyn Wood (24)
3.05pm – 3.30pm	Conference Close and Poroporoaki				